Foreword . . .

Although no two students spend their years at Canfield in exactly the same way, every student attains a similar accomplishment as he ends his high school career. There he finishes laying the foundation for the patterns of thinking and acting that will follow him throughout his life.

Each aspect of the Canfield School System has helped to form these patterns. In the classroom, the student learns to think independently and to express his ideas. On the athletic fields, he learns the thrill of competition and meets the challenge of sportsmanship. As a participant in the extra-curricular activities, the student has an opportunity to explore new horizons. As a member of the school community, he learns to judge people and to evaluate them as individuals. He discovers the importance of lasting friendships.

Thus, each phase of education offers the student tools with which to mold his own character and personality. Although each student uses these tools in a different way, no student can pass through Canfield without being influenced and altered by them.

"We in this country, in this generation, are—by destiny rather than choice—the watchmen on the walls of world freedom. We ask, therefore, that we may be worthy of our power and responsibility—that we may exercise our strength with wisdom and restraint—and that we may achieve in our time and for all time the ancient vision of peace on earth, good will toward men."

C. M. Johnson Marks 29th Year of Service to CHS

Overseeing the operation of an entire school system is a challenging task requiring forethought, responsibility, experience, and most of all, tact. No one would doubt that Canfield's superintendent, Mr. C. M. Johnson, has a demanding job indeed. It is up to him to co-ordinate all the branches of the Canfield School System, from the members of the board through the teachers, bus drivers, cafeteria workers, and custodians, down to the students. The talents and abilities that our superintendent has brought to his job during his twenty-nine years at Canfield have proven him an outstanding educator.

Mr. Johnson has helped guide the Canfield Schools from the small system that existed in the 1930's to the ever-growing suburban, educational complex it is today.

Living in Canfield, Mr. Johnson has been able to appreciate all the changing aspects of the Canfield School System, not only as an educator, but as a member of the community as well.

Every student who attends Canfield will always remember him as a sincerely devoted educator, but more than that, he will remember Mr. Johnson as a lasting friend.

Assistant Principal Donald S. Bishop and Principal E. E. Francis work together on problems confronting CHS.

As Canfield students pass through their high school years, they are faced with many questions and problems. Principal E. E. Francis and Assistant Principal Donald S. Bishop have the complicated job of solving these problems. Many hours are spent by Mr. Francis counseling students, conferring with faculty members and planning the next day's schedule. Long after the regular close of the day, Mr. Bishop can be found at the school performing the many duties necessary to insure the smooth functioning of CHS. The work of these two men is an influential factor in the life of every Canfield High School student.

Principals, Board of Education Guide CHS

Dedicated and intensely interested are words which best describe the members of the Canfield Local Board of Education. This group assumes the responsibility of seeing that every student in Canfield receives the best possible in educational opportunities. This is accomplished through the efforts of board members who meet throughout the year and study many alternatives in order to make the countless necessary decisions.

John Rodgers, president; Halden Booth, clerk-treasurer; C. M. Johnson superintendent; Charles Blunt; Myron Leonard; Howard Clay; and Dr. C. K. Walter, vice-president.

Personnel Contributes to Welfare of Students

Members of the cafeteria staff prepare meals daily for CHS students.

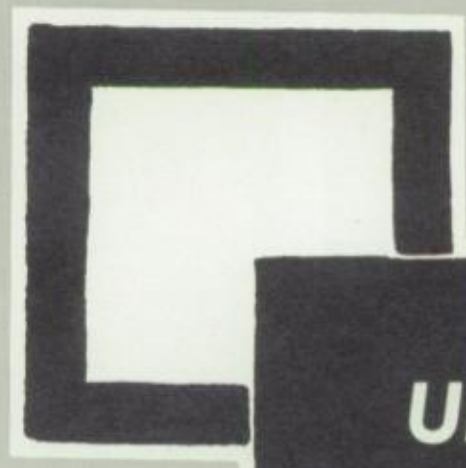

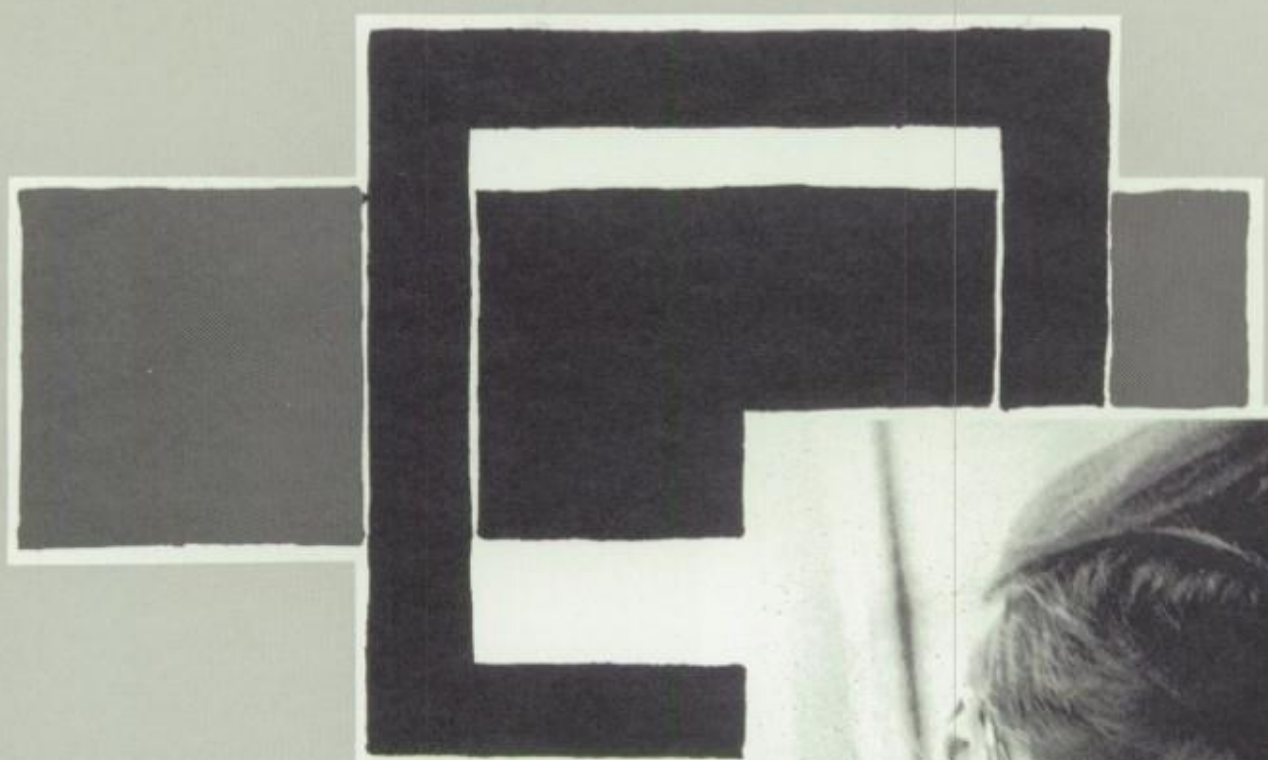

Custodians spend long hours keeping CHS in good condition.

Personnel

Essential to CHS are the men and women who perform the numerous tasks so necessary for the smooth running of a school. Countless hours are spent performing clerical duties, giving medical assistance, preparing meals, maintaining the school, and transporting students. Thus these employees contribute a great deal to the welfare of Canfield students.

Bus drivers provide an important daily service to CHS students.

Student Council Chooses Class Rings

As the student government organization of CHS, Student Council is composed of elected representatives from each high school homeroom. Under the leadership of President Ed Rodgers and advisers Miss Etheleen Hugli and Mr. James Wilhide, this body reviewed student suggestions for school improvements and put into effect the policies of the administration and faculty.

Student Council followed a busy schedule which included planning pre-game rallies, decorating goal posts for home football games, and sponsoring a special Leap Year Dance. In addition, representatives planned and presented the Parents' Day Football Program, which honored mothers and fathers of team members. Members also prepared the annual Christmas Assembly and organized the spring Honor Assembly. This year's governing body had the privilege of deciding on the design for Canfield's standardized class ring.

Students Receive Awards at Honor Assembly

Sponsored by Student Council, the annual Honor Assembly was held on May 15. First to be recognized were twenty-four senior honor students who received silver keys, which symbolized the attainment of at least forty-nine grade points.

Next to be recognized were those students who had earned eighty or more points through service and scholarship. Honor letters were awarded to two sophomores, eleven juniors, and sixteen seniors. Five seniors, who had earned the required 160 points, received the coveted bar letter.

Principal E. E. Francis then presented certificates to seniors who had placed in the Senior Scholarship Test and to those students who placed in the upper twenty-five per cent in the Preliminary State Scholarship Tests. Some students received still another award for placing in the Final State Scholarship Tests.

National Honor Society Inducts 31 Members

In one of the most moving yet simple ceremonies of the school year, CHS juniors and seniors who had excelled in leadership, scholarship, character, and service were accepted into the Canfield National Honor Society. As members of this organization, students dedicate themselves to giving service to the school and maintaining a high level of scholastic achievement.

Under the advisership of Miss Virginia Burgoyne, NHS performed a number of service projects during the past school year including the sponsoring of grade school roller skating parties, collecting children's books for the Youngstown Child Guidance Center Library, and presenting an entertainment and discussion program for area NHS chapters.

Spring Induction

Eligible juniors and seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society during a special assembly. The program included speeches by various students and members of the administration and music, which was provided by the high school a cappella choir. At the conclusion of the assembly, parents, teachers, and NHS members were guests at a tea held in the home economics room.

Volunteer Staff Produces Top-Knotter

Recording the memories of students' activities and achievements of the school year is the main purpose of the Top Knotter. Editors Mike Ullman and Karen Leonard and the staff members become accustomed to many hours after school carrying out countless jobs that go along with the production of a yearbook. Photographing, writing copy, typing, planning layouts and a sales campaign are a few of the many jobs distributed among the staff members. Along with the editors, advisers, Miss Marlene Mogish and Mr. Donald Bishop, strive to meet deadlines and improve the quality of the yearbook. This annual portrays to students, teachers, parents, and other members of the community a complete and accurate summary of the life of Canfield High School.

Cardinal Is Named Best Duplicated Newspaper

"All Cardinal reporters are required to submit one news suggestion before the close of the day." This announcement, familiar to all CHS students, is especially important to Cardinal staff members, for it marks the initial step in the publication of each issue of the school newspaper. Next the news is gathered, written, proofread, typed, proofread again, illustrated, and mimeographed.

Under the advisership of Miss Marlene Mogish and Mrs. Marion Steele, staff members produced sixteen issues of the Cardinal during the school year. Members of the staff were elated at the news that the Cardinal had won the Northeastern Ohio Scholastic Press Association award for the "Best Duplicated Newspaper of 1963-64" of those entered in the journalism conference at Kent State University. With spring came the annual Cardinal Banquet, at which pins were awarded to deserving staff members.

Cardinal page editors Jane Barnes, Joyce Jones, and John Germaine search for last-minute ideas on deadline day.

Editor-in-chief Judy Slagle finds information in the Cardinal file.

Members of the staff come early on Friday morning to finish stapling those last few issues.

The faithful "Thursday-niter's" enjoy a break as they wait for the last page to be mimeographed.

Artists and typists appear to have all those last-minute production problems solved.

Thespians Explore Theatrical World

Troup #1183, advised by Mr. James Wilhide, highlighted its second year by giving its members the opportunities of seeing many outstanding plays. Members attended plays at the Youngstown Playhouse, Ohev Tzedek Temple, Kent State University, and Mount Union College.

Students desiring membership in this organization must earn ten points through participation in the field of dramatic arts. Two inductions were held this year bringing the membership total to sixty. Thespians concluded this year's activity with a banquet held in May.

In a dramatic moment, Paula Davidson, as Dolores Dampfish, produces a poisoned apple. However, her attempt is foiled in the melodramatic production of "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

Robin McReynolds, Carl Ullman, Terry Johnson, and Bob Terry compose the cast of "The Monkey's Paw," a drama depicting the strange events which evolve around the magical powers of the paw.

In the light comedy "Tell It to the Morans," Dave Andrews, as Mr. Moran, explains to his daughter, played by Judi McCall, the high finance involved in planning a wedding.

Dramatics Club Presents One-Act Plays

With the assistance of Mr. James Wilhide, the Dramatics Club has promoted the field of dramatic arts for CHS students. Members of the Youngstown Playhouse were speakers at several meetings as students were instructed in make-up, lighting, portrayal of character, and setting. Field trips to see productions such as "The Fantasticks," "Carousel," and "The Diary of Anne Frank" were also enjoyed by the group.

Highlighting the year was the One-Act Play Festival presented in February. "Tell It to the Morans," "The Monkey's Paw," and "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" were the plays presented. "Wandering Boy," an old-fashioned melodrama and a "first" at Canfield, evoked enthusiastic cheers and hisses from CHS audiences.

AFS Sponsors Exchange Student From Holland

The American Field Service was created to promote friendship and understanding among the peoples of all nations. The Canfield chapter helped to promote these purposes by bringing Enno van der Veur from the Netherlands to Canfield High School.

As a part of his advisory duties, Mr. Charles Bennington guided the group through a successful Christmas tree sale to raise funds for future club activities. Other fund-raising projects included a basketball game with the "WHOT Good Guys" and dances sponsored after home games during the basketball season.

In April an assembly featuring area exchange students was presented to the student body. At this time Enno presented the flag of the Netherlands to Student Council President Ed Rodgers, who in turn gave Enno a class ring on behalf of CHS students.

Katy Brenner and Jim Luft sell a Christmas tree to an interested customer.

AFS members presented an assembly featuring a panel discussion by area foreign students. CHS students who participated stand in the background, while Mr. Charles Bennington, adviser, is seated with students Tuulikki Kahkonen, Eva Tornvall, Enno van der Veur, and Jaime Vargas.

Key Club Boasts New Membership Record

Sponsored by the Kiwanis, Canfield's Key Club, under the guidance of Mr. William Lester, surpassed previous membership records. With an emphasis on service, members sold programs at all CHS athletic events and at the District Basketball Tournament. Additional service projects included umpiring Little League games and putting up chairs and bleachers for various school functions. For enjoyment members formed an intramural basketball team.

Several members attended the state convention held at Columbus, and in June six boys traveled to Dallas to participate in the national convention.

Key Club members gather around President Randy McPhee to make plans for the annual Key Club Convention.

Tri-Hi-Y Initiates Scholarship Program

Functioning as a service organization, the Canfield Tri-Hi-Y club is affiliated with the Youngstown YMCA. Under the direction of Miss Olga Kitrinou, the club is limited to junior and senior girls.

An impressive candlelight induction service was held in the fall at which new members received their pins. The annual Thanksgiving assembly was presented by the club and a Christmas semi-formal was sponsored for the pleasure of the student body. The annual Civic Day program sponsored by the Youngstown merchants was a highlight of the year for senior members.

The year's activities were concluded by a banquet, at which the seniors were the guests of honor. Initiated this year was the presentation of a $200 scholarship, which was awarded at commencement exercises.

Hi-Y members welcomed exchange student Enno van der Veur as a member at the Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y induction ceremony.

Members sold popcorn at home football games to help provide money for the Hi-Y scholarships.

Hi-Y Emphasizes Service to Canfield

This year, Canfield's Hi-Y, with a membership of eighty-eight, was the largest in the area. Freshmen, a new addition to the club aided upperclassmen in such activities as painting the football bleachers, selling popcorn at football games, and operating the coat check after basketball games.

President Chuck Huxsaw was nominated for governor in the Annual Ohio Youth in Government program. Many senior members participated in the annual Civic Day Program in March. Again the club provided two scholarships of one hundred and fifty dollars each, to deserving graduating seniors.

Future Teachers of America Obtains Charter

New to Canfield this year is the Future Teachers of America group. Mrs. Wanda Weimer and Mr. James Knox were instrumental in organizing the club. Membership in this group enables students to explore career opportunities in the field of education. Students are also able to see first hand the various teaching situations.

Assisting small reading groups, supervising gym periods, and checking papers are some of the tasks F.T.A. members perform at the grade school level. Checking papers and performing clerical duties present opportunities for students interested in secondary education.

A teacher's paper work can really accumulate! Sophomore Cheryl Fulcomer, as an F.T.A. member, was able to assist in lightening at least one grading task.

Especially appreciated at CHS are the many duties performed by the members of the Projection Club. With the help of Mr. Donald Bishop, adviser, these boys learn the techniques of repairing film, showing movies, and operating the PA. This group also keeps the schedule and circulation of audio-visual material moving along smoothly.

Projection, Camera Clubs Serve School

Under the direction of Mr. Donald Bishop, approximately eighty students learned the correct habits of taking and developing successful pictures. Members were also instructed in the mechanics of a camera and in film processing. Activities of this group include supplying the athletic staff with photographic needs, taking pictures for the Top-Knotter, presenting displays of pictures from Junior-Senior Prom, and obtaining publicity shots for the school.

Newly Organized Pep Club Boosts Spirit

New this year at CHS is the Pep Club organized and advised by Mrs. Marjorie Pollock. Approximately ninety girls—sophomores, juniors, and seniors—practiced early in the morning before school. Some of the cheers and songs used by the club were familiar to CHS fans while others were written especially for the Cards by Pep Club members. These girls attended every home basketball game, brightening up the gym in their outfits of red and black. This club's enthusiasm and appearance not only aroused much spirit among spectators and team members, but also served as a model for other area pep clubs.

Frequent meetings of the executive council were held to plan the CHS Pep Club performances. These girls planned the seating arrangement, checked attendance and introduced new pep songs. Members of the council include (seated): President S. Shirreffs and Vice-president B. Luth. (standing): Row captains T. Jacobs, K. Cutler, C. Gentzel, Mrs. Marjorie Pollock, adviser; and M. Opritza. Row captains not pictured: M. Cashon, K. Peters, and J. Backman.

Debate Club Hosts Area Tournament

Developing clear and logical thinking, as well as poise and confidence, are the aims of the Canfield Debate Club. Members, advised by Mr. James Wilhide, participated in numerous events. This year's proposition, "Resolved: That Social Security benefits should be extended to include complete medical care," provided a stimulating topic for research and discussion.

In November the club was host for the Youngstown District Debate Tournament. This marked the first debate held at CHS. "A," "B," "C," and "D" division teams debated again this year. Both "A" and "C" teams received second place trophies in district tournaments.

Debaters ended the year's activities in an interesting way by attending a lecture at Rayen High School by Dr. Edward Annis, President of the A.M.A.

Individual Events Speakers Earn Honors

Although in its first year, Canfield's Individual Events Speech Team enjoyed a good season. Coached by Mrs. Dolores Hall, the team sent representatives to five contests at area schools. At these contests, first-place awards were earned by Katy Beadel and Kerry Sue Blunt, and a second-place award was received by Ginny Rhodes. Twelve representatives were sent to the District Contest at Rayen. There, seven CHS speakers placed in the finals. Of these seven, Anne Davis was chosen to go to the state contest in Columbus.

Through active participation in many events, twenty-three CHS students earned the twenty-five points necessary to qualify for membership in the National Forensic League. Although this organization is not chartered at Canfield, plans for next year include affiliation with this group.

Once a speech is given, students listen attentively to comments given by fellow classmates.

Mrs. Dolores Hall, adviser, and Ann Davis find many good ideas for speeches in news magazines.

Much to Dad's disgust, the family dog always insisted on sleeping on Dad's bed and had to be removed.

Junior Class Presents "Cheaper by the Dozen"

Dad really was an efficiency expert and felt that what worked at the factory would surely work at home. The entire Gilbreth family is pushed toward greater efficiency in everything from drying dishes to taking a bath.

This unique situation presented the plot for this year's Junior Class Play, "Cheaper by the Dozen," which was presented on April 3 and 4 at the school auditorium. Mr. James Wilhide, director of the play, said that the comedy drew the largest audience ever to attend a play at Canfield High School. Mr. Wilhide was assisted by Judy Slagle, student director.

Mr. Gilbreth explains to his children how to take a quick and efficient bath.

Anne's father expressed his feelings toward "teddies" in one emphatic "no!".

Bill intrudes just at the moment when Larry sums up enough courage to hold Anne's hand.

Miss Brill antagonizes "the dozen" by calling them all rasty little cheats.

Scholarship Team Travels to Salem

On May 2, 1964, members of the CHS Scholarship Team traveled to Salem High School for the Final District-State Scholarship tests. A preliminary test was given at CHS to determine representatives in each division. Competition has become increasingly difficult as Canfield recently moved up into class competition with the largest high schools in Ohio. Bringing honors to Canfield was Karen Hoover who placed fourteenth in the state in the English division.

Office, Library Assistants Perform Tasks

Both the office and library benefit greatly from the help of faculty and library assistants. These students volunteer one period a day, during which they perform various tasks. In the office, students can be found answering phones, duplicating materials for teachers, and running errands. Other students aid elementary teachers in various tasks. Volunteers in the library check books, work with the card catalogue system, and keep attendance records.

Music

Chorus director Paul Rossi advises piano accompanists Marianne Kistler and Carol Jones.

This year for the first time, the students participating in the chorus were divided into grade groupings. The freshmen and sophomores were in chorus sixth period and the juniors and seniors ended the school day singing. Members of the chorus provided music for the Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and honor assemblies and also sang at Bacchalaureate and Commencement.

A new addition to the chorus at Canfield this year has been a boys' quartet, which has sung at various assemblies.

The highlight of the chorus' year, in addition to the musical, was the trip to Boardman by sixty students, who participated in the All-County Chorus.

Chorus, Band Present "The Music Man"

Spring found CHS students humming those catchy tunes from the 1964 musical, The Music Man. Two performances for the public were given in the auditorium on April 24 and 25; grade school students viewed a special performance on the afternoon of the twenty-fourth.

Colorful costumes, realistic scenery, and the "nearly professional" performance by the chorus and band evoked many words of praise from enthusiastic audiences. The surprise finale featured all of the chorus members, led by Professor Hill and Marion Paroo, marching through the aisles of the auditorium.

The town gossips voice their disapproval of Marion, who has been made chairman of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Faculty advisers Mrs. Helen Klingaman, script writer; Mr. Paul Rossi, musical director; and Mrs. Lisa Germaine, assistant director, confer on the script.

Below Right: Marion and her mother listen proudly to Winthrop as he sings a new song which Professor Hill has taught him.

Marion, played by Dolly Prosser, ignores Harold Hill, played by Mike Ullman, as he attempts to convince her how much he cares for her.

Bands Present Annual Spring Concert

Directed by Mr. Paul Elias, sixty-six students participated in this year's edition of the Canfield High School Band. Members practiced during the summer and began the year's activities by performing during two days at the Canfield Fair. The band performed at all home football games as well as at many of the "away" games. Adding to the spirit at pep assemblies was an enthusiastic group called the pep band.

This year band and chorus members joined forces in the annual magazine drive. Efforts were rewarded for members topped the established goal.

Five CHS band members performed in the All-County Band. In district competition the Canfield Band received an excellent, or II rating. Many members in solo and ensemble contests received high ratings.

The year's activities were concluded with the presentation of the band concert, "Spring Bands in Review," which was held on May 15 in the high school auditorium.

Coaches Lead Cards to Victory; Gridders Boast Undefeated Season

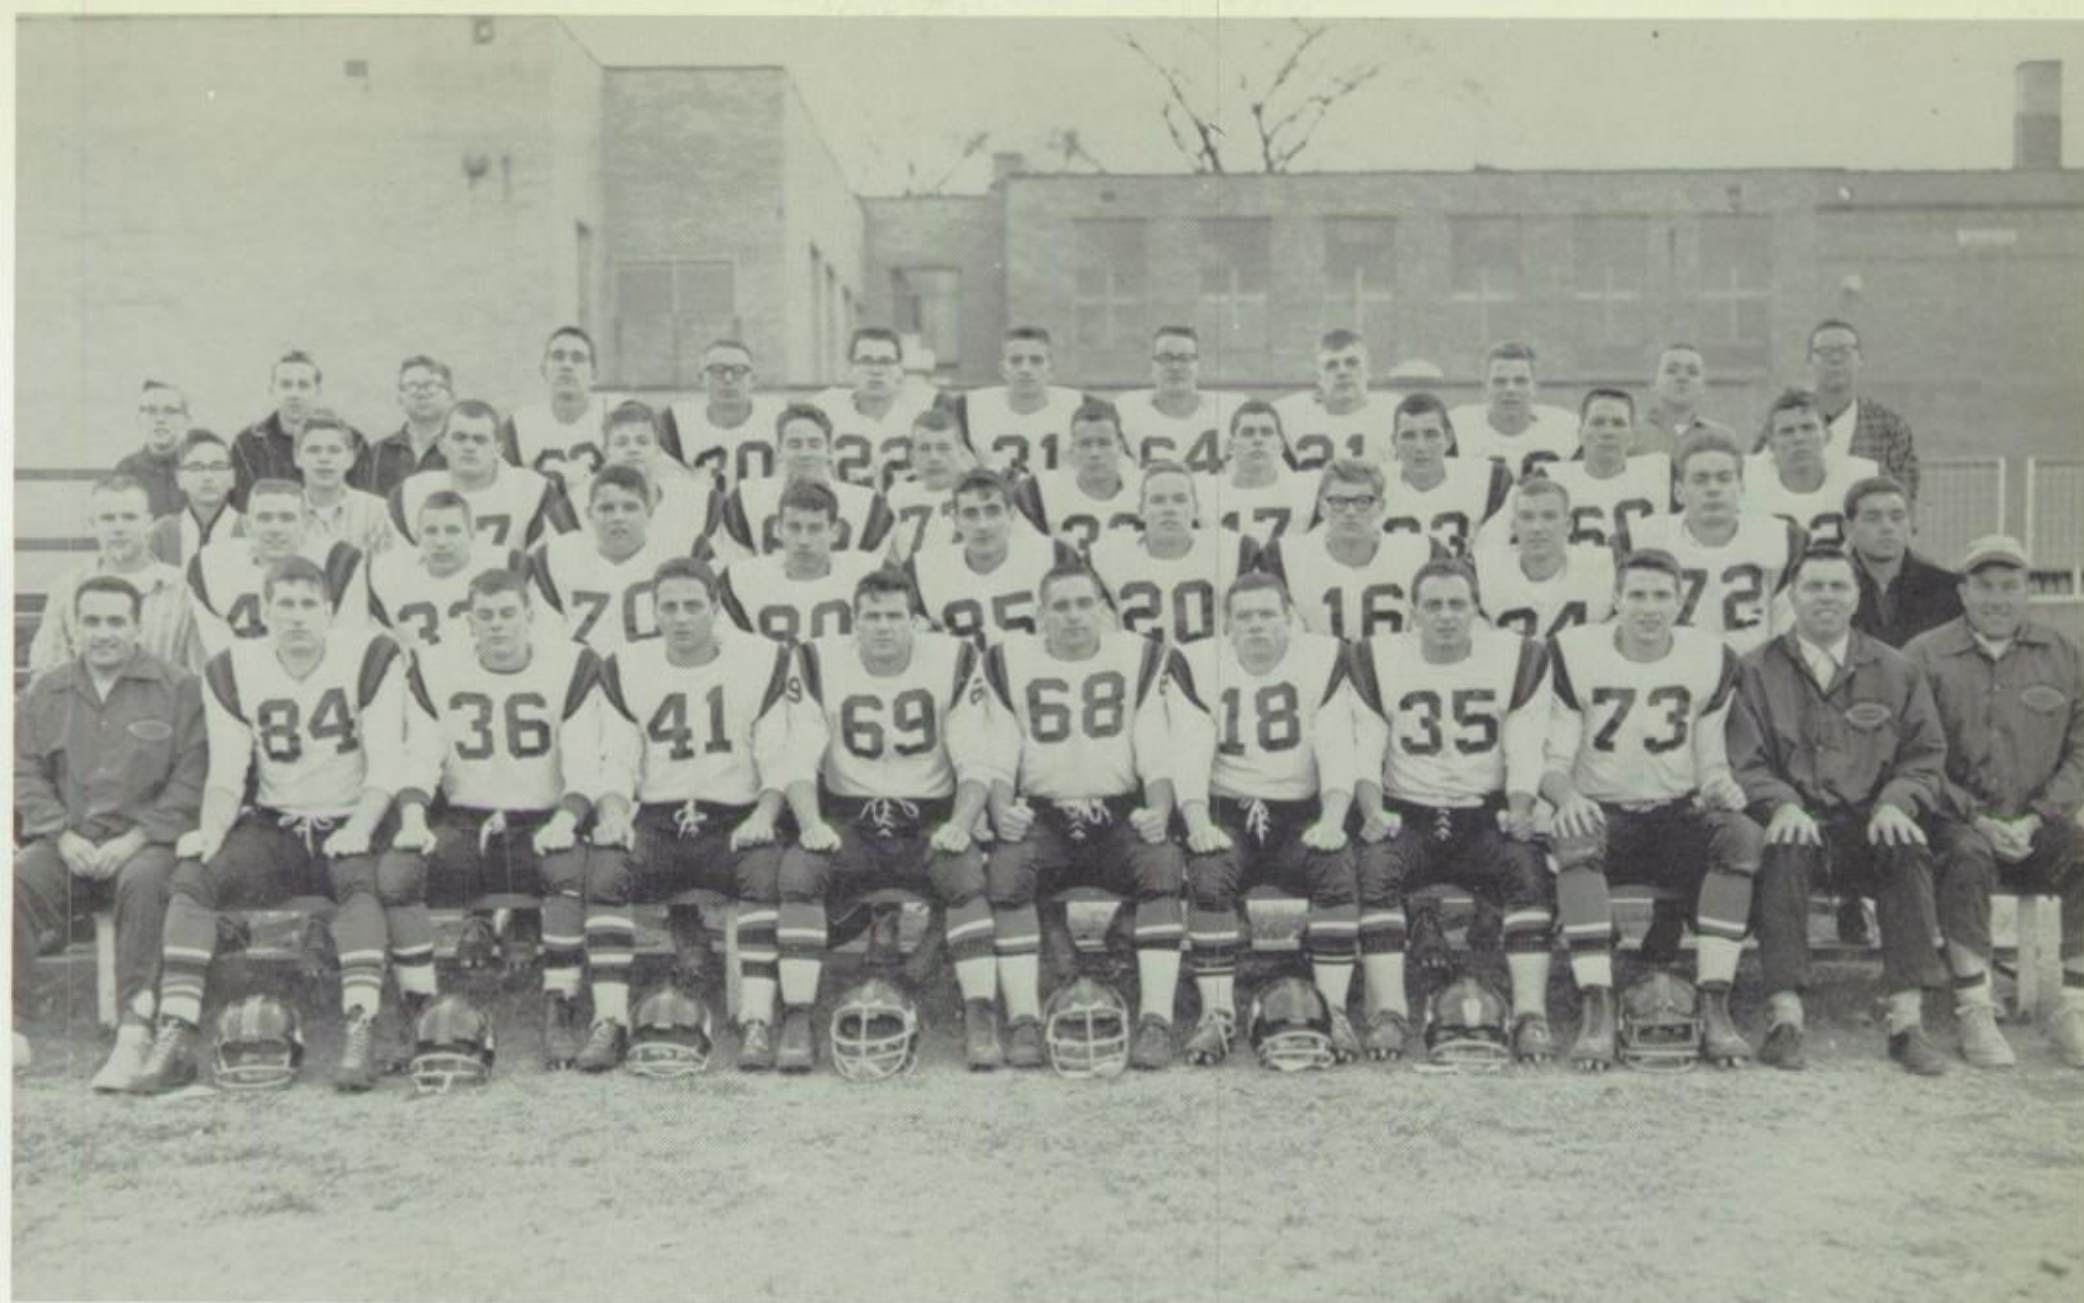

Coached expertly by Jack Peterson, this year's "Fighting Cardinal" Football Team produced one of the school's finest seasons with an impressive 8-0-2 record.

Canfield's almost impenetrable defense proved to be the major factor in this year's success. Yielding only 32 points all season, it was considered one of the best defenses in the state. Hard work by assistant coaches Pat Pollifrone and Bill Andrews aided the team in attaining its goal.

Playing the toughest and longest schedule in the school's history, Canfield was ranked third in the area and also received high state ratings in both wire service polls. The Cards were also co-champs of the Turnpike Conference.

Cardinal fans witnessed many thrilling moments of action-packed football during the season. Especially memorable was the Columbiana game in which Canfield, during the last few seconds of play, stole the opposition's almost sure victory by tying the score. Another high point of the season came when the Cards "upset" the Fitch Falcons in an exciting battle, which ended in an 8-6 score with Canfield the victor.

In competition for the first time with a Youngstown City Series team, Chaney, the Cards proved to be an able contender by holding Chaney to a 6-6 tie. The Cards closed the season with an impressive 28-6 victory over the Leetonia gridders.

Cagers Meet Rough Opponents

Confronted by a season of challenging opposition and a lack of experience, Canfield's "Fighting Cardinals" finished with an 8-11 record. This record, however, was not a true indication of the team's strength. Many of the games were decided by a margin of one or two points, as in the Boardman tournament game in which Canfield was edged only in the closing seconds by a score of 66-63.

Season's highlights included a close battle with undefeated Liberty, a double win over Fitch, and an impressive victory over rival Poland.

Individual efforts including top scorer Jim Cashon's 230 points and Jeff Cummings' 118 rebounds were vital to the team. Jeff was also chosen most valuable player while Don Stack earned the honor of being chosen captain.

Varsity Cheerleaders Add Enthusiasm, Variety to CHS Athletic Events

Senior Sue Yarrow, Basketball Captain.

Glamour and enthusiasm were added to CHS athletic events by the varsity cheerleaders. For the first time, a total of six girls led the student body in songs and cheers. Advised by Mrs. Marjorie Pollock, the girls practiced every Wednesday night to insure a professional performance. Working with a special student committee, the varsity cheerleaders were instrumental in the success of the CHS pep assemblies.

Reserves Cheer at Football Games

Reserve cheerleaders, sporting new black and white uniforms, cheered for the first time at reserve football games. These four girls were on hand to add spirit to the reserve basketball games. Girls on this squad brought their enthusiasm to the CHS pep assemblies.

Many hours of practice and effort have given our freshman cheerleaders outstanding qualities. On hand for football and basketball games, these girls helped keep the team spirit high.

Rifle Team Boasts Impressive 6-3 Record

Hours of practice and the coaching of Mr. Ernest Bernice accounted for the impressive 6-3 record of the CHS Rifle Team. Highlighting the season was the Canfield victory over Sharon. The skill of team members was evident in areas other than the regular season. In an area match, several Canfield shooters earned trophies, and sophomore Chip McCracken had one of the top shooting averages in Steel Valley competition.

Thinclads Succeed in Competition

With the help of Coach Jack Peterson, the members of the 1964 track team put forth their best efforts for a successful season despite the unfavorable weather conditions which prevailed. School records in the 880-relay were broken by Kabetso, Stefanski, P. McKnight, and Winant. Those breaking the previous school record in the mile-relay were Kaketso, Luepe, Stefanski, and Finnie.

The thinclads finished a profitable season with senior Bill Habeger being named the most valuable player. Two seniors, two juniors, three sophomores and one freshman received track letters in recognition of their achievements.

Tennis, Golf Teams Participate Actively

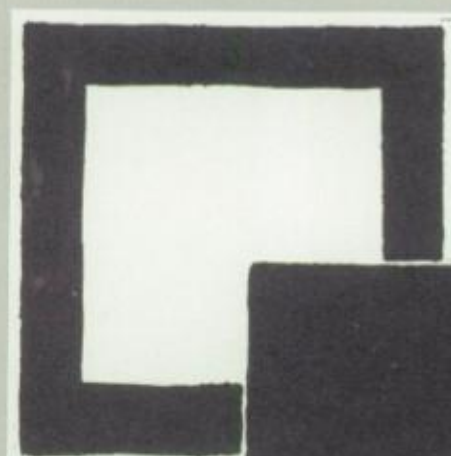

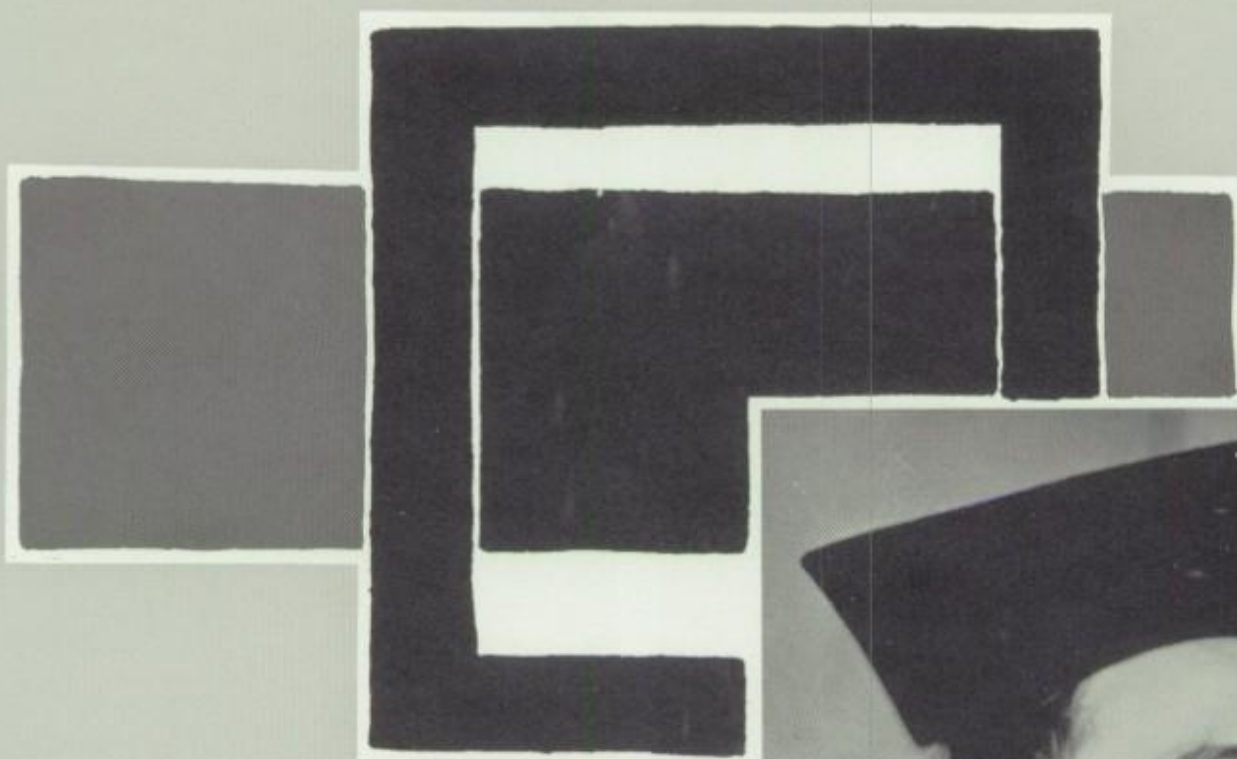

Lacking experience, the tennis team, coached by Mr. William Lester, compiled a 3-5 record. Losing five consecutive matches in a poor start, the team cleanly swept their last matches, defeating Howland, Salem, and Niles.

Before the first match, only one member of the team, Enno van der Veur, had ever played competitive tennis before. He was the only letterman and consistent winner, losing only one match during the entire season. "As for the rest of the team, prospects look good for them; they have a lot of fight and were always trying, and they never gave up till the last point was won," was the comment Mr. Lester gave in summing up the season.

Coached by Mr. William Andrews, the golf team posted a 3-5-2 record this year. The team was very young; just one senior, Micky Cessna, participated. Letters were earned this season by Cessna and Gary Bowden.

This was the view presented to couples as they danced on the deck of the Enchanted.

Ted Angelo and his band provided music for the evening as couples danced aboard the deck of the U.S.S. Enchanted.

A red carpet and gaily decorated gang plank welcomed guests aboard.

Junior-Senior Prom Features U.S.S. Enchanted

Couples attending the Junior-Senior Prom on May 9, 1964, spent the evening as passengers aboard the U.S.S. Enchanted. As they arrived, students were escorted to a red-carpeted gangplank by sailors recruited from the ranks of the juniors' fathers. Approximately one hundred sixty-five couples boarded the Enchanted.

Decorations, featuring a red, white, and blue color scheme, included a rock-bound lighthouse with flashing beacon, portholes showing deep-sea surroundings, and a starlit mural of the New York City skyline.

Couples danced from nine to midnight.

At midnight a buffet supper, planned by Mrs. Wealthy Crawford, was served to the couples by parents of the juniors.

Seniors Present "The Mouse That Roared"

The satirical comedy, "The Mouse That Roared," under the direction of Mr. James Wilhide and student director Ann Enterline, was performed by Canfield's Senior Class on the nights of November 26 and 27, 1963.

The largest cast to be involved in a class play presented a unique situation to its audience. The play featured a microscopic country that was slowly sinking into bankruptcy and had come to the conclusion that the surest way to wealth was to lose a war with the United States. The money they would receive to repair war damages would be more than enough to make them self-sufficient again. But, to their dismay, the Duchy of Grand Fenwick found it was winning the war after its invasion of New York City and the capture of the "Q-Bomb."

A magazine advertisement shows that a cheap imitation of Grand Fenwick's chief export is being manufactured in California.

The security council is in session as Gloriana XII wishes to discuss the strategy her small country must use to get the imitation of their wine off the market.

The President of the U.S. receives a challenge of war from Grand Fenwick.

Members of the army of Grand Fenwick return to their country with the "Q-Bomb" and present it to Gloriana.

Scholarship Team, Honor Students Recognized

Academic excellence was maintained by twenty-four members of the class of 1964 throughout their high school career and was recognized at commencement exercises by the symbolic gold cord worn over graduation robes. Honor students were recognized at dinners given by the Rotarians and Kiwanians. These students also received pins at the Honor Assembly. The Honor students chose Judy Slagle and Charles Huxsaw to give the class address during commencement exercises on June 4, 1964.

On November 16, members of the Senior Scholarship Team traveled to South High School to compete in the Senior State Scholarship testing program. Of those who took the preliminary test at CHS, students who placed in the upper twenty-five percent were eligible. At the spring Honor Assembly, these students were recognized for their academic achievement.

Class of '64 Attends Baccalaureate

On the evening of May 31, members of the Class of 1964 assembled in the school auditorium for baccalaureate services. Under the direction of Mr. Paul Rossi the high school chorus presented vocal selections featuring a solo by Doris Prosser. Father Gallegher, from St. Michael's Parish in Canfield, presented the sermon. The Rev. Carl Brand of the Canfield Baptist Church and the Rev. Alonzo Wise, pastor of the Canfield Christian Church, delivered the invocation and benediction, respectively.

Members of the high school chorus provided inspiring thoughts as they sang "O' Brother Man."

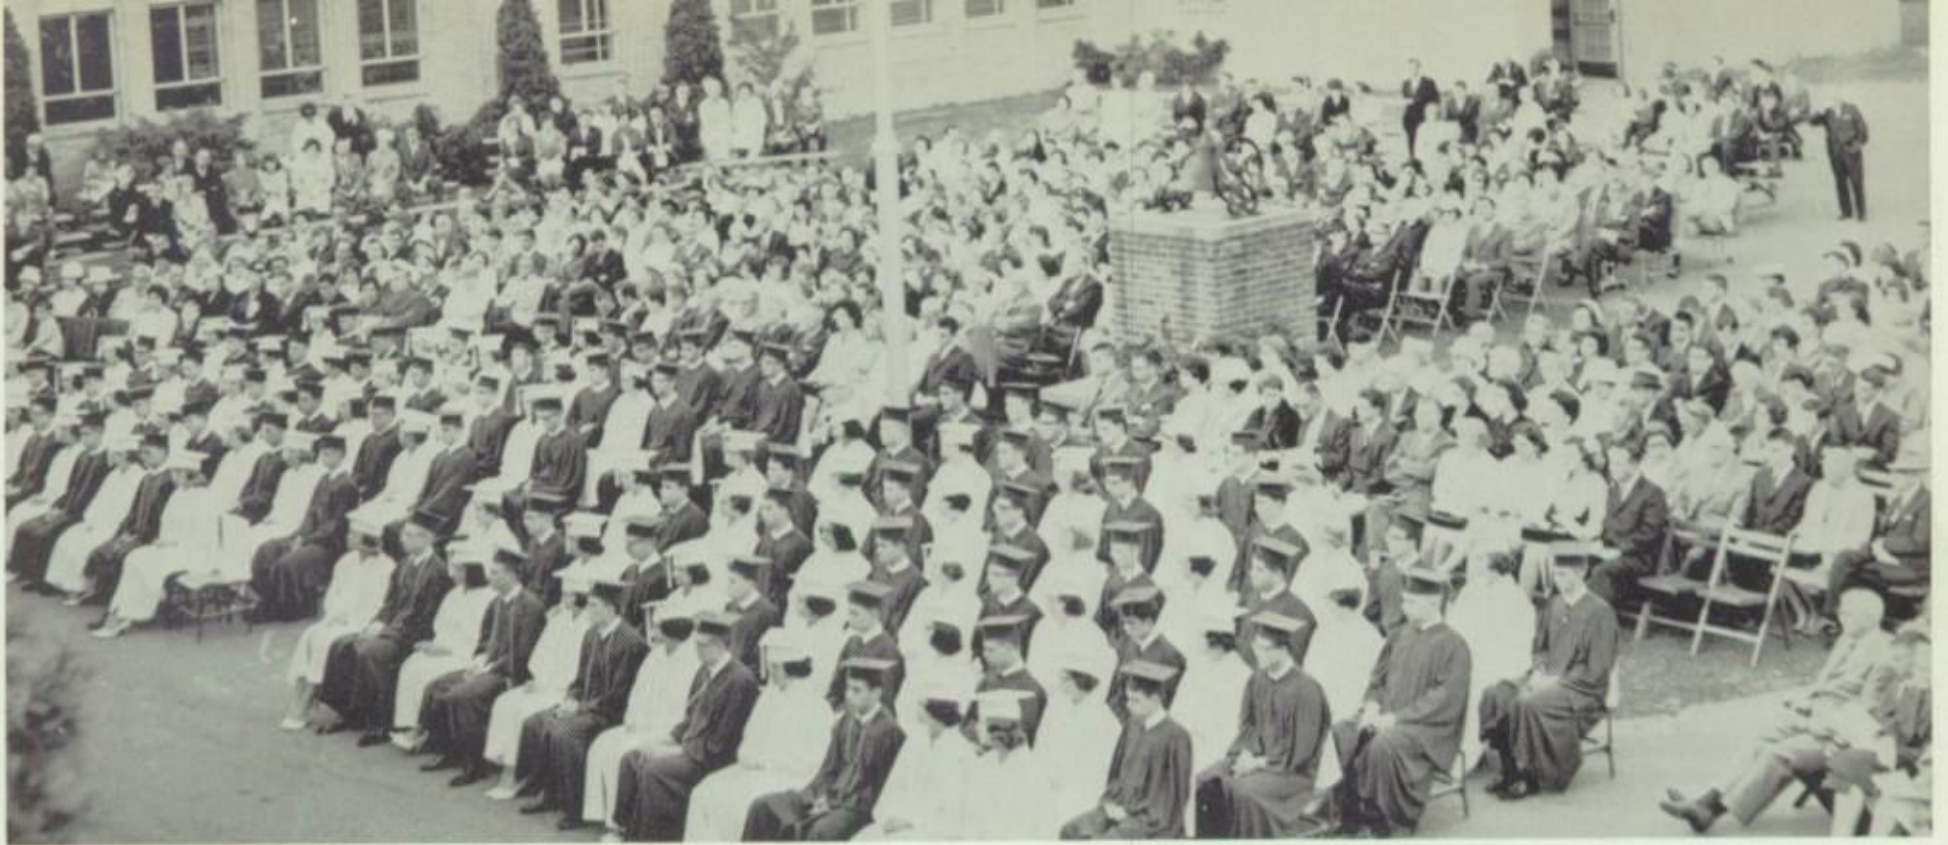

The front of the school provided the setting for the outdoor commencement exercises for the Class of 1964.

"Pomp and Circumstance" provided the musical background for the seniors as they marched to their places.

Below: The navy and white of the graduation robes presented an interesting pattern.

Seniors and guests await the speeches of the honor students and the announcement of the various scholarship winners.

Commencement

At the first outdoor commencement exercises in the history of Canfield High School, 135 members of the Class of 1964 were graduated on the evening of June 4. Addressing the graduates on the topic "The Measure of a Man," Dr. D. D. Lessenberry, Professor Emeritus of the University of Pittsburgh, spoke of the importance of growing, living, and building as individuals. Honor students Judy Slagle and Charles Huxsaw gave speeches based on Rudyard Kipling's poems "If" and "The Thousandth Man."

Under the direction of Mr. Paul Rossi, the high school chorus furnished vocal music for the graduates. Special scholarship awards were presented by Principal E. E. Francis and representatives of various community organizations. After receiving their diplomas from Mr. Myron Leonard of the Board of Education, the graduates solemnly switched their tassels and marched into the building together as a class for the last time.

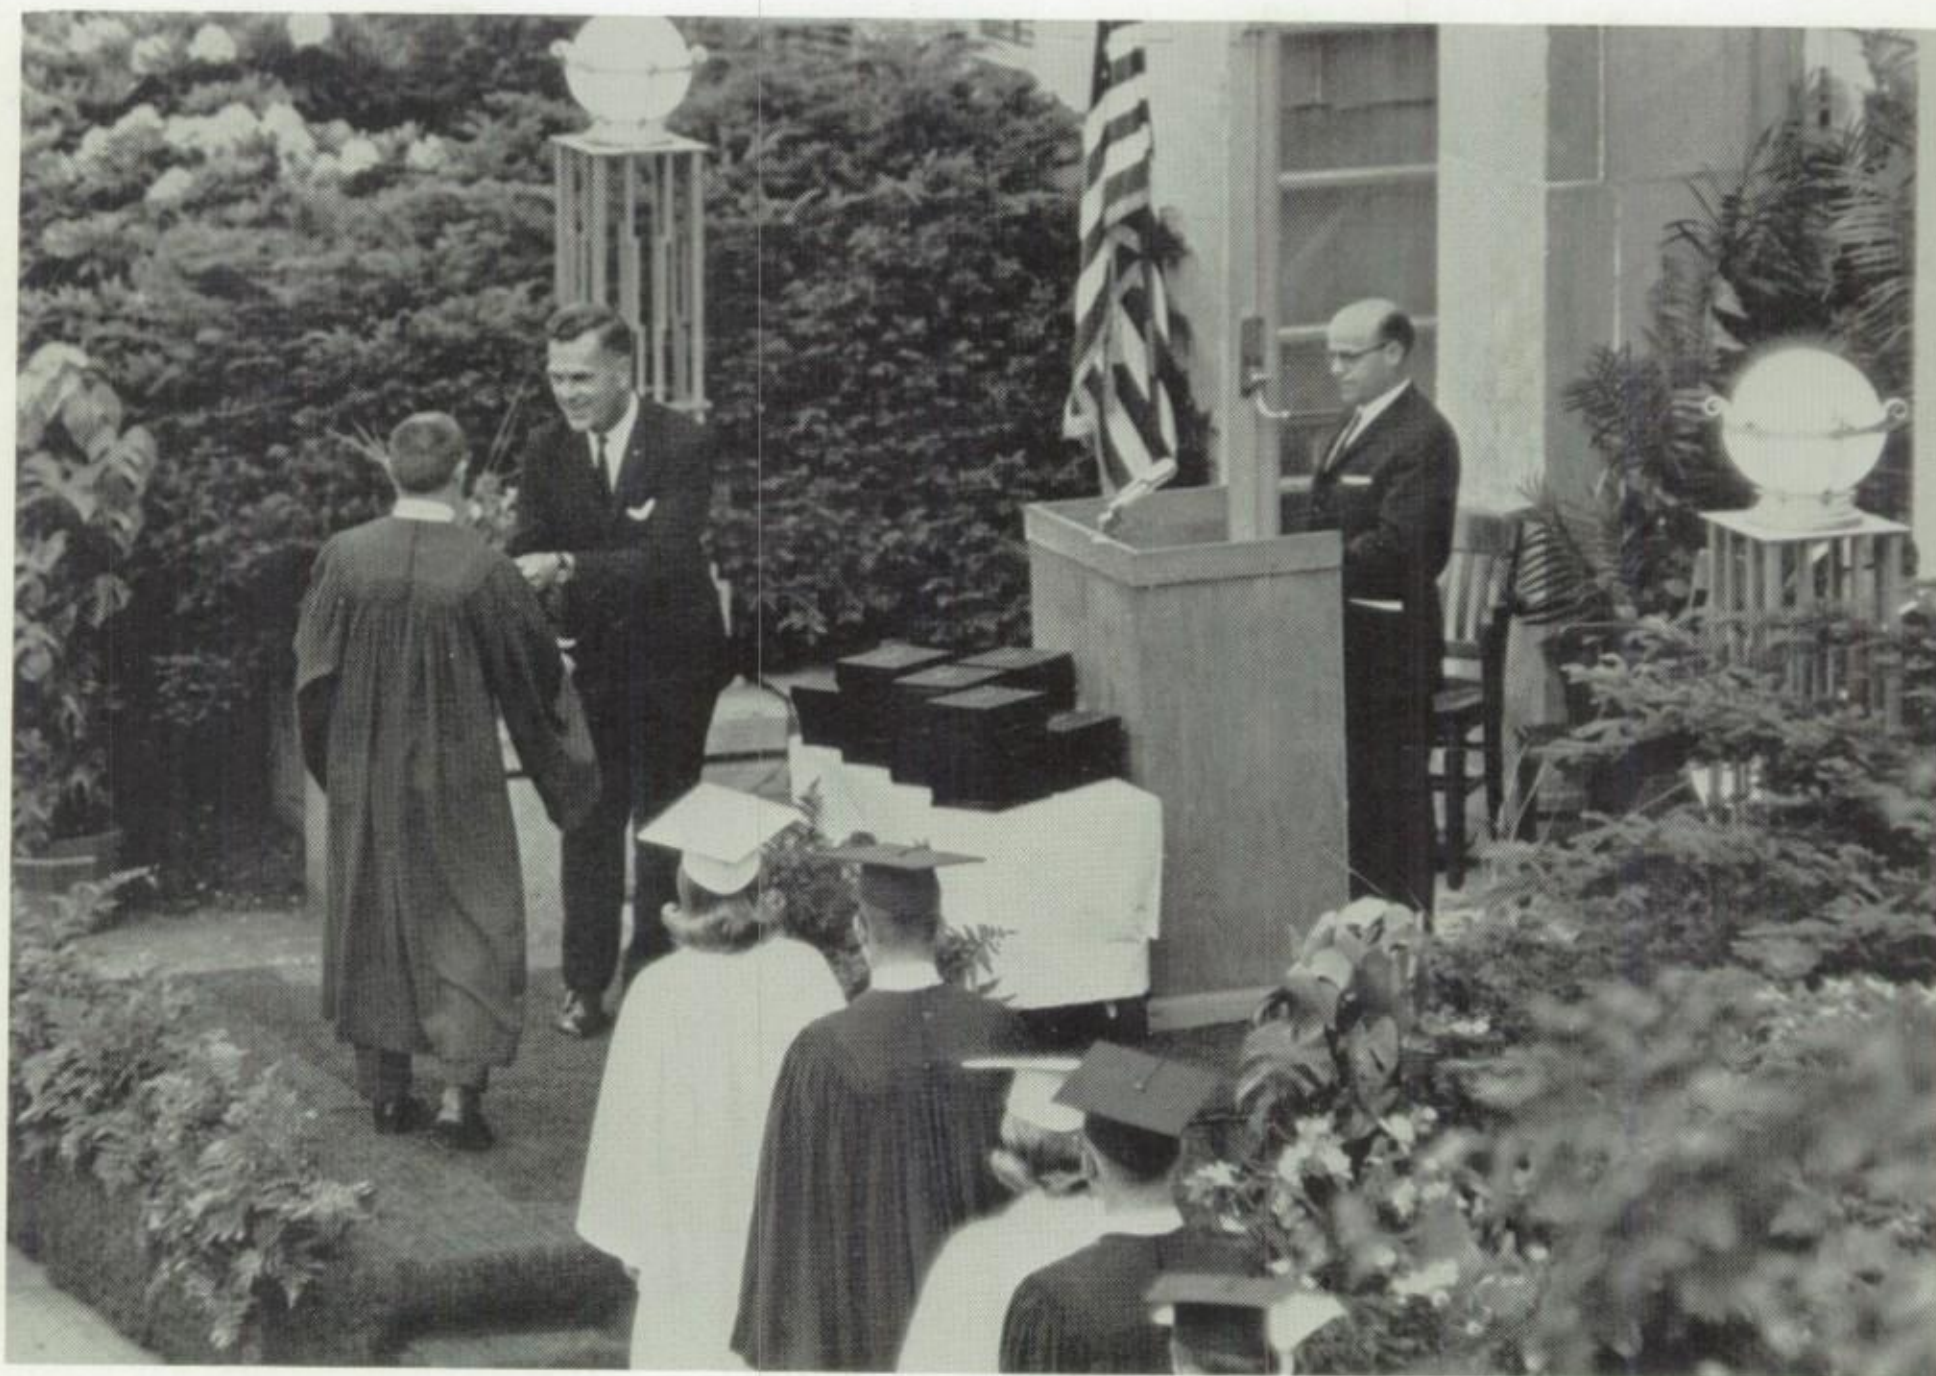

Dr. D. D. Lessenberry delivers his message to the graduating seniors.

Carrying their newly awarded diplomas, members of the Class of 1964 march into the building.

The Long Awaited Moment Arrives . . .

To each of us this past year has meant something different. We can never relive a moment of it but we shall have long-lasting memories of our high school days. We, the '64 editors, hope we have succeeded in capturing your greatest moments in this volume of the Top-Knotter.
